Well, you know what importance I attach to such matters, and that I have been too long fighting with real revels in the field, with mu-kers in their hands, to be scared by mere non-combatants, no matter how high their civil rank or station It is amusing to observe how brave and firm some men become when all danger is past. W. T. SHERMAN. Yours, truly, Letter from Gen. Warren

NEW YORK, May 24 .- Gen. Warren has published a letter on the subject of his removal from command by the commander of the 17th corps. He says he was removed after the battle of Five COL. H. He reported to Grant, who gave him another HARNEY, HUGHES & CO., command. On the 9th of April he asked an investigation, and again on the 22d. He could GEO. P. D ERN, Goods, not get a court, but was put in command of the Department of the Mississippi. He then details the operations of the 1st of April, from which it appears that he received an order from General DAVIS, GREEN & CO., Meade to report to him for duty, after he had joined Sheridan, which he did, taking part in the HART & MAPOTHER, battle of Five Forks. Perhaps this was his oftense-obeying orders from Meade after being WE WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION OF DRUG placed under command of Sheridan, though it JULIUS WINTER,

There was a great turn out of citizens last night to serenade Gen. Sherman.
